LOYD GEORGE SAYS ALLIES WILL WIN

(Copyrighted by International News Service).

LONDON, Jan. 24.—After having been believed by press associations for weeks, Minister Lloyd George, Great Britain's outstanding figure in the present war, today selected the International News Service as the medium through which to make his views on the present struggle known to the people of the Western hemisphere.

Expressed in a few words his declarations are that the Allies are firmly united and will win. England now has one of the greatest armies in the world. If Germany wins she will seek fresh resources to conquer. The British fleet saved England from being over-run the first three months of war; "might is right" was the declaration of prominent Germans before the war—one was representative of the industrial and scientific branches and the other of the military branch.
The military has the upper and. If the Allies win the industrial Germany will disappear.

England is reforming herself, continued the minister of munitions, and will emerge more united with better economic conditions than ever.
If Germany wins the Monroe Doctrine will be a "scrap of paper" to be over-run by German ships.

DOVER DOCKS BOMBARDED.

BERLIN, Jan. 24.—The British barracks and docks at Dover were bombarded by a German aero-plane Saturday night. The extent of the damage is unknown.

ALBANIAN LINER WAS SUNK BY SUBMARINE.

ROME, Jan. 24.—The Italian liner Brindisi, sunk January 6, outside of Sangiovannidimedua harbor was destroyed by a submarine, according to Vittorio Vitte, president of the association for the rescue of Serbian children. According to Vitte several Americans lost their lives.

EXERCISE YOUR PREROGATIVE TOMORROW.

Tomorrow is the day that the people will nominate charter commissioners to be voted upon in the election February 8.

Five men are "running" as candidates. Four will be nominated. Each voter participating will cast his vote for THREE. Bear this in mind: if you vote for four your vote will not be counted.

Lew Smith will have no opposition. Col. C. M. Bingham and A. McF.
Porter are opposed by Geo. A. Main and A. M. Wing.

The Daily News believes Porter and Bingham are the superior men of the four. They and their friends have conducted a clean campaign. They are men of the highest business qualifications. They represent no clique or faction.

During the many years' incumbency as city clerk of Mr. Porter he has made such a competent official that he has never had opposition. Even his political enemies cannot question his ability.

Colonel Bingham has been a successful business man—in other words he has "made good" with his own business. His business is now so well organized that he can give his time to the affairs of the city. It has been said that he will resign shortly after election. Col. Bingham authorizes the Daily News to state that if nominated and elected HE WILL SERVE HIS TERM
AND DEVOTE HIS BEST ENERGIES AND ABILITIES TO THE INTER-ESTS OF THE CITY. The talk of his "resignation" is a hoax perpetrated to induce voters to cast their ballots for an opponent. He has even been solicited by the "opposition" to withdraw from the race.

Every conceivable move has been made by the self-styled "friends of the people" to elevate to office Main and Wing; attempts have been made to continue the factional dispute that has been of long standing in city politics; misrepresentation after misrepresentation has been made to hoodwink the voters. People who know conditions as they really exist, however, will not be hoodwinked. They know that Porter and Bingham, of the opposed candidates for city commissioners, will give the city a business administration without regard to political friends or enemies and without fear of or favor to any clique or faction.

The Daily News admonishes every voter to go to the polls tomorrow and cast his vote. Many who favored a commission charter, but of a vastly different kind, remained away from the polls the last election and as a consequence the result is well-known. This should be a lesson to every voter to exercise his prerogative. VOTE TOMORROW. The result will probably be close and YOUR VOTE MAY DECIDE UPON WHO WILL DEVOLVE THE DUTIES OF CONDUCTING THE AFFAIRS OF DAYTONA.

PRESIDENT WILSON IS BACK AT HIS DESK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—President Wilson is back at his desk in the White House and will receive hundreds of callers before leaving on his speaking trip Friday night.

The president desires legislation speeded up and it is reported that he will threaten congressmen with a veto of all "pork-barrel" measures unless the dilatory tactics on preparedness and other important bills cease. The president desires the agricultural measure passed quickly in order to have plenty of time on the army and navy bills.

He hopes that his speaking trip will demonstrate to congress that the public wants the preparedness measures.

been sent from Cologne to quell the disturbances.

WILL TURKEY ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY?

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—No confirmation of the Exchange Telegraph dispatch saying that Turkey will assume responsibility for the sinking of the Persia, has been received. Officials believe the report to be authentic. Should the report prove true, however, immediate demands will be made for a disavowal and punishment of the submarine commander.

AIR-FLEET BOMBARDS MONASTIR.

SALONIKI, Jan. 24.—A fleet of 45 French aeroplanes bombarded the Monastir railway station and barracks. The Bulgarian and Austro-German munitions depots were badly damaged.

TURKS SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES.

PETROGRAD, Jan. 24.—The Turkish forces in the region of Erzerum and Alachrid are retreating over a 50-mile front, relentlessly pursued by Russians. The Turk losses are heavy.

WILSON "DIVIDES" THE WORLD.

SMALL AUDIENCE HEARS CANDIDATES AIR CLAIMS

President Wilson has achieved the difficult task of dividing the nations of the world, or that portion of them represented at Washington, into two "camps," with the United States between the two groups in the position of innocent bystander as umpire.

When the division had been effected, the president announced that he would, on separate days of course, entertain both "camps" at dinners at the White House. The first dinner was given on the evening of January 21, and was attended by the dignitaries representing the nations of "Camp No. 1," which includes France, Russia, Japan, Belgium, Italy, Great Britain, Brazil, Portugal, Colombia, Peru, Uruguay, Switzerland, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Salvador, Cuba, China, Ecuador and Panama. The first six nations will be recognized as belligerents.

"Camp No. 2" is made up of the now warring nations of Austria-Hungary, Germany, Turkey and Bulgaria, and the neutral countries of Sweden, Norway, Greece, Argentina, Bolivia, Guatemala, Honduras, Paraguay, Nicaragua, El Salvador, Venezuela, Haiti, Holland and Persia, and their spokesmen at the national capital have been invited to dinner in the state dining room at the White House on Tuesday night of this week.

The reason given for entertaining "Camp No. 1" first—and the reason seems to be a perfectly plausible one—was that French Ambassador Jusserot happens to be the dean of the corps of diplomatists at Washington, and only because of this his most democratically republican excellency's group had the first chance to stick their diplomatic feet under the Wilsonian table. German Ambassador Count von Bernstorff, being second in rank among the exceedingly dignified and moderately circumspect official palaverers elsewhere, will stand at the head of "Camp No. 2" when, on the evening of January 25, its members and their womenfolk go down to Fourteenth and Pennsylvania to "feed."

An attempt was made to divide the neutral nations with regard to their sympathies for one or the other of the groups of belligerents now engaged in shattering up the European landscape with debris, blood and dead men. "What's it all about—this dividing up and entertaining—you ask us. We haven't heard yet. But we fancy it is about nothing in particular."

Delighted and flattered to see the News' pet slogan paraphrased by one of the candidates for commissioner.

Let's wrap up this copy of the News and send it back home to Jim or Ned or some other member of the bunch, when we get through reading

We glad you stopped in Daytona. The Metropolis says the Miami crowd all night. And most of the silly, loud-mouthed things aren't said, either.

Diamonds and other precious stones valued at $25,000,000 were imported into the United States last year. The customs appraiser at the port of New York predicts that the end of the present year will reveal this country as the largest gem-purchasing nation of the world.

Whether through lack of interest or because the members of the labor unions have already made up their minds as to how they will vote next Tuesday or because they were afraid of a sprinkle of rain which fell at about 7:30 Saturday evening, the mass meeting which had been advertised to be held at that hour in Union hall on North Beach street was very slimly attended. There were about 25 persons present of whom perhaps half were laboring men while the other half was composed of candidates and residents of Kingston. The presence of one lady saved the evening for the fair sex.

D. D. Rogers acted as chairman and introduced the speakers, of whom Lew Smith was the first. Mr. Smith, who is the favored choice of both factions, confined his address to making a statement as to why he was a candidate and explaining what the duties of a commissioner should be. He said it was a business proposition and he felt that he was qualified for the position through his years of service for a corporation and his several years' experience as a member of the city council.

Mr. Smith was followed by Geo. A. Main, superintendent of the city waterworks plant. Mr. Main, like Mr. Smith, confined himself almost entirely to giving the reasons for his candidacy and stated that rather than make the race in comparison with other candidates he preferred to be elected on the record he had made in good service for the city in his seven years' incumbency of the office of superintendent of the waterworks.

It was left to A. M. Wing, the third speaker and candidate for commissioner, to disclose the weakness of the opposing candidates, Col. C. M. Bingham and A. McF. Porter, in which he was later ably assisted by Joe Osborne, one of the main men behind the guns in the revolution against the existing order of city government.

Mr. Wing referred to the beauties which nature had bestowed upon Daytona and the handicap placed upon the city by poor government and what he understood was in some instances worse than inefficiency. He said he hoped the voters would elect him with the other candidates who had spoken, and that it would be the height of folly to turn the commission form of government over to men who had been opposed to it and who would work to its detriment and delight in its failure. Mr. Wing made the mistake of crediting Col Bingham with being opposed to the commission form of government, a statement which has frequently been made by those opposed to Col. Bingham, who for years has been a strong advocate of commission government and has never deviated from that faith. It was not commission government to which Col. Bingham and many other thinking citizens have been opposed but the recently adopted charter which they believed was poorly constructed and in many ways unsuited to Daytona's needs.

Mr. Wing said he had heard it hinted that promises were being made to voters for their support of Col. Bingham and Mr. Porter and that Col. Bingham had been coerced into accepting the nomination for commissioner and would, if elected, soon retire from the office to make way for one of the old controlling party. He asked how Col. Bingham could afford to take the time from his business that would be required by the duties of commissioner, but at the same time failed to state how he himself could afford to take the time from his business interests. Mr. Wing said he believed in an honest, safe, sane, economical and progressive city government. He also stated that he believed that a material reduction in taxes should be made.

In response to an invitation to take the floor Joe Osborne spoke at some length, principally in relation to the qualifications of the several candidates. In reply to a question as to what he thought of the candidacy of Col. Bingham and Mr. Porter, he replied that neither of them, in his opinion, was fitted for the position of commissioner. Mr. Osborne said it would probably be a close contest and he was sorry to acknowledge that the result would be in the hands of the colored voters. With 50 per cent

"movie" patrons of Daytona, many of whom have had the pleasure of reading Nicholson's enchanting novel.To those not familiar with the book:
"The House of a Thousand Candles" deals with love and hate, mystery and adventure, secret passageways and hidden gold. Five thousand feet of tayer, Grace Darmond and other popular stage favorites, are used in the play.The Greater Need."I am very busy," said the inventor, of that vote he would feel assured of victory. Mr. Osborne did not get to pay his compliments to Titus and said that he would be camping on that official's trail whenever and whenever his hand appeared in public affairs.H. T. McClellan, of Kingston, was called upon and spoke briefly, enclosing his taking part in the discussion of Daytona affairs on the ground that he had as perfect a liberty to do so as that of the editor of one of the Daytona papers who lived without the city, but was active in city matters, and made use of the influence of the paper in city affairs. A feature of Mr. McClellan's speech was a comment to the voters of the faction represented at the meeting to vote for candidates only, namely Wing, Smith and Smith, although four candidates are to be nominated at the primary on Tuesday from which the voters will select three at the general election to be held February 8.

MISS SHOLTZ ENTERTAINS
ON HER TWELFTH BIRTHDAY
Little Miss Rosalie Sholtz entertained 30 of her friends Saturday afternoon at her home on Atlantic avenue, north, the occasion being in celebration of her 12th birthday anniversary. The residence was beautifully decorated in a red and green color scheme.
The afternoon was delightfully spent in many interesting and enjoyable games. Late in the day, a delicious salad course, hot chocolate, ice cream and cake were served. The guests were assisted in looking after the pleasure of her guests by her mother, Mrs. Michael Sholtz, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Sheets, and sister, Miss Sholtz. Little Miss Sholtz was a charming hostess and the afternoon was most happily spent by those in attendance.

A meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will be held Wednesday afternoon at the "Geneva" on Ocean boulevard. All members are expected to be present as business of importance will probably be transacted and a pleasant afternoon is assured.

DAYTONA BEACH LOCALS

Mrs. Nelly O'Brien, of Ypsilanti, Mich., arrived last week for the remainder of the season and is pleasantly located with Mrs. Moon on Seabreeze avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Turner and little son, Dean, of Sanford came over Sunday and spent the day visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Coates on Palmetto street. Mr. Turner and family returned to their interior home late in the afternoon by auto.

Mesdames Menard and Hayes, of New York City, have taken apartments in the Oyama building for the remainder of the season. The ladies are intending to open to the public massage and manicuring parlors in one of the Oyama block stores.

Milton Washburn has accepted a position in the East Coast State bank as bookkeeper for the remainder of the season. An excellent banking season was experienced last year, but the present is so much better that new employees must be taken on.

Workmen have been engaged for the last few days in taking down the old water tanks and tower used by the Co-operative Waterworks company in former years. This equipment is being carried to Ortona, where it will be installed for the convenience of residents.

SEABREEZE PERSONALS

Miss Ruth Stewart returned to Stetson university Sunday evening after spending the week-end with her family at their residence on the corner of Ocean avenue and Earl street.

Miss Ethel Sholtz, who came over from DeLand and Stetson to spend the week-end with her parents and family at the Sholtz home on the beach, has returned to her work at the university.

Several of the friends of Mrs. Palmer Walthour were pleasantly entertained at a fishing trip in the Spruce creek neighborhood Saturday. Basket lunches were carried and a fine day was spent on the river.

E. M. Willis, the business manager of the "World Outlook," addressed the Tourists' class of the Daytona Beach Methodist church Sunday morning on the subject of a "Four Square Man."

Into the 20-minute talk the speaker embodied many simple noble thoughts that created a deep impression on all of his hearers. He outlined his idea of a "four square" man and said that his ideals of such a man were his elder brothers, his own real brother in Milwaukee, and the big brother of us all, Jesus Christ.

In spite of the inclement weather about 120 were present to hear the talk.

ADDITION TO CHURCH BUILDING IS TALKED

The members of the Tourist Union church of Seabreeze, whose meeting house is located on the corner of Glenview boulevard and Peninsula drive, are talking of enlarging their building. The present neat structure has served the purpose of the congregation for six years but has now become too small.

At a meeting held last week by the official members the subject was discussed for a short time but was laid on the table on account of other business.

SOCIAL GIVEN FOR NEW BAPTIST CHURCH

Mrs. Walter Sweeney gave a social at her home on Ocean avenue Saturday night for the benefit of the Seabreeze Baptist church. About 35 were present and $5.00 was realized from the sale of the ice cream and cake. The Sweeney home was attractively decorated with beautiful cut flowers for the occasion.

DELIGHTFUL JAPANESE

PARTY HELD SATURDAY

One of the most delightful social events of last week was the Japanese party Saturday night, given by Mesdames Henry Pollitz and Harry A. Horn, at the Pollitz residence on Orange avenue. The lower floor of the residence was opened en suite and was artistically decorated with bamboo, Japanese lanterns and parasols and cut flowers, which formed a beautiful background for the ladies in their oriental attire.

The evening was pleasantly spent in playing fan tan. At the conclusion of the interesting games, the scores were compared and Miss Lena Tomlinson, holding highest score, received a hand-painted Japanese luncheon set. Consolation prizes were given to Misses Carrie Freeman and Edith Stilling. After the awarding of prizes, chop-suey, saltines, rice cakes and tea were served. The hostesses were assisted in looking after the pleasure of their guests by Mrs. Horn's sister, Mrs. Robert Clark.

Before the luncheon the ladies voted on the best representation of "Madam Butterfly," and Miss Mamie Swartz received the highest number of votes, thereby winning a neat box of correspondence cards.

The evening spent in the land of Japan was one long to be remembered and all thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of their most gracious hostesses.

CLARENDON TO HOLD

DANCE EVERY NIGHT

Commencing with the present week a dance will be given at the Hotel Clarendon every night except Sunday, throughout the remainder of the season. These balls are held for the pleasure of the guests and the well-known Tucker orchestra will furnish the excellent music for the dancers.

Peninsula Heights

THE TOURISTS' CHURCH

OF SEABREEZE

Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock the minister spoke of the place that a natural environment had in the development of joy, exuberance and enthusiasm. His subject was, "The Plan-tations of God." In part Mr. Serl said that the lack of poise and human efficiency seen in our modern life was due largely to forsaking the environment of nature. He analyzed modern city life and advocated a return to a moderate rate of living, with which our nerves could keep pace. The sermon was an attempt to emphasize the spiritual values which are inherent in the great bible of nature.

In spite of the rain, the congregation was very pleasing in numbers. A folder, descriptive of the work of the Tourists' church, was distributed to those in attendance and will later be placed in the hands of everyone living on the peninsula.

If you read it in the Daily News it is pretty apt to be just that way.

DEATH OF PROMINENT O. E. S. WOMAN WELL-KNOWN HERE

The many friends and acquaintances in Daytona and vicinity will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Jennie Rule, widow of James Rule, of Mason City, Iowa, which occurred in that city on the third day of this month. The information of Mrs. Rule's death came to Mrs. G. E. Anderson, a personal friend for many years of the deceased. Mrs. Rule had visited Mrs. Anderson in this city in two or three winter seasons and made many friends, particularly among the members of the Order of the Eastern Star and Masonic fraternities. She had been in failing health for about two years. Mrs. Rule was past grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star of Iowa and a widely-known member of the order. She helped to establish the O. E. S. home at Boone, Iowa, and took part in the institution of the order in the Klondike and in Honolulu.

$300,000 BE USED BY GOVERNMENT TO ERADICATE CANKER

APPROPRIATION PASSES LOWER HOUSE OF CONGRESS AND MAY BE INCREASED BY THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 24.—Three hundred thousand dollars as an emergency appropriation with which to carry on the work of eradicating citrus canker during the next five months was carried in the urgent deficiency bill, which has passed the house, with the prospect that it will be increased, perhaps, to a half million dollars when it reaches the senate. The canker provision was adopted unanimously, a remarkable thing being that Republican Floor Leader Mann and former Speaker Cannon both spoke in its favor.

This appropriation is to become immediately available and is only to provide funds for this work up to July 1, when a much larger appropriation under the agricultural bill will be available. In this latter bill an appropriation of $4,000,000 has been asked, and while there has been no official assurance that this amount will carry all of those interested in this legislation, including Secretary Houston, of the United States department of agriculture, feel that unless it was a foregone conclusion that several millions would be appropriated under this bill the appropriations committee would not have passed the emergency appropriation now made available.

The appropriation of $300,000 is made at the direct request of the secretary of agriculture, who filed an official estimate, which was o. k'd by President Wilson, that this amount was urgently needed to stay the ravages of citrus canker until other funds could be supplied through the agricultural committee.

Hon. D. C. Gillett, president of the Tampa, Fla., board of trade, as chairman of a committee representing the citrus fruit growers and business interests of five states where citrus canker is prevalent, has been working zealously in Washington presenting the needs of 28,000 citrus growers to the federal authorities. The way in which he conducted the campaign for these interests has won the enthusiastic commendation of many members of congress and other federal officials who have been brought into close touch with his work. At a most inopportune time and under very adverse conditions he sought hearings before the federal authorities and in all of these hearings presented his case in such a forceful and convincing manner that the appropriation he sought was given the earliest possible attention at the hands of congress. Some of the most prominent members of congress have said that the citrus canker campaign for federal aid was handled the best of any publicity campaign that has come before congress in many years.

NEW YORK NUGGETS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The Child Welfare board has just granted the first widows' pensions here. To 161 women caring for more than 500 children will go checks by mail direct from the city auditor's office, with no professional charity worker to interfere and perhaps humiliate the poor mother. With each check goes, too, a kindly letter notifying the mother that she receives the money for her services to the state.

Writing to the Boys' Club association, which is trying to raise $500,000, Theodore Roosevelt said: "You could have no better motto for the association than, 'Never be neutral between right and wrong.' The boys have adopted the motto as their slogan."

Owing to increased sanitation in stations, education along health lines and more gymnasiums, there is less sickness in the New York police department than ever before. In the last year there was a saving of 5,050 days of sick leave as compared with 1914, which is equivalent to more than 13 men a day for active police duty.

Mary Urbanowicz has just become the bride of Wadyslaw Guruszkowski, of Passaic, N. J.

Speaking to the German University league, Prof. A. B. Faust, of Cornell, said that 26 per cent of the nation is German-born or German ancestry, against 30 per cent English and Scotch and 18 per cent Irish. There were 500 German-born officers on the Union side in the civil war, he continued, and 200,000 enlisted men, although the German population in the country then was only 1,270,000.

NEW SORT OF HOLIDAY INAUGURATED

THE OBSERVANCE OF THRIFT DAY FEB. 3, IS NOT CONFINED TO ANY RACE, CLASS OR DENOMINATION.—ALL CAN CELEBRATE.

Thrift Day, February 3d, is unique as a holiday, in that its proper observance is a vastly different and far more beneficial one to the individual than the usual celebration of the average holiday. On this day the even tenor of things goes on; business is developed; and financial institutions remain open to do their share in the celebration. There is no cessation of progressive activities familiar to most holidays, and which frequently result in reckless waste of both time and money.

Another feature is that it is the only holiday not confined to any race, religion or class. In its final development it is neither national, sectional, regional or factional, but can be celebrated by all humanity, to the ultimate and lasting benefit of individuals, communities and the world.

Economists for years have been agreed on the increasing evidences of waste on the part of the average person, but the remedies advanced have been various, and frequently too impractical for successful application. From Philadelphia, with every element for universal endorsement comes the suggestion of Thrift Day, February 3d. The primary point is not whether the idea is absolutely new, but whether it is practically susceptible of useful application.

The celebration of Thrift Day lies in the faithful performance by each individual of some thrifty action on that day. The very simplicity of the idea will go a long way toward its successful development, and this development will mean a mighty step forward to better conditions for everybody.

For this reason, leaders in all fields of activity, particularly financial institutions, are co-operating to make memorable the first annual observance of Thrift Day this year, so that there will be a fitting standard to be followed on the Thrift Days to come.

While the saving of money is one very desirable feature, this is not the essential basis of thrift. It actually includes the utilization of common sense in three things—the use of earnings, the use of time and the cultivation of temperate habits. From each of these qualities a lesson might profitably be taken by many.

Statistics show that the lack of thrift is more concerned in the making of poverty than deficiency in wages. Thus it is that every thrifty person may be considered as a public benefactor, and every thriftless person a public enemy. Society is split in two classes—the provident and improvident. The annual observance of Thrift Day is confidently expected to eventually reduce the latter element to an insignificant percentage of the population. Careful estimates show that the percentage is now heavily on the wrong side of our national ledger. The very essence of honesty is the living within one's means.

In the use of time, how many are there who fully realize that time once gone is lost forever? The thrifty individual does today what he could do tomorrow. He utilizes his time in his youth that he may have it to spare in old age. Common sense in the distribution of one's time is a powerful factor in thrift and Thrift Day offers the opportunity to practice it.

THE WEATHER

After the balmy weather that the weather man sent Saturday, he followed it by rain Saturday night and Sunday forenoon. But fair weather is expected for tonight and Tuesday. Winds to moderate northeast and east winds will prevail.

AND HE HADN'T

MONEY, BUT LARGE

ROLL IN EVIDENCE

Joseph Damraff, evidently of foreign birth, was before Mayor Titus this morning on the charge of doing business without a license. The specific charge was that Joseph was selling cigars without paying to the collector of the city of Daytona the necessary fee required of all persons doing business within the corporate limits. Damraff was fined $25 and costs—double of a license—he said he had money and would be obliged to go to jail, so to the calaboose Chief of Police Milton started with him. As the usual custom, Damraff was searched before being placed in jail. During the search a roll of bills was enough to choke a horse was found in his pockets. After the money was taken from him, Damraff changed his mind and concluded to pay the fine.

OIL BOAT LUSTERLITE REMOVED FROM BAR

The oil boat Lusterlite, owned by the Gulf Refining company, which had been aground at the inlet for more than a week, was taken off this morning at about 9:30 o'clock by F. A. Root with his tug, Hustler, lighters, anchors and other equipment. The Lusterlite was moved about 20 feet last night and her release followed this morning as stated.

The Howard Transportation line steamer McNeill, which went aground the night following the Lusterlite, is still hard and fast but an attempt will be made to take her off tonight at high water.

FLYING BOAT WENT ADRIFT

That an anchor is a very useful part of the equipment of even a flying boat was demonstrated about noon today when the hydro-aeroplane, through the rising of the tide, was set adrift from her position south of the South bridge and floated some distance down the river before she was overtaken and brought back to her berth by a local craft.

HEARD ON THE STREETS

Albert Bennett, proprietor of the Bennett hotel, joined his wife and son in Jacksonville today and expects to be in the state metropolis for a few days attending to business matters.

Dr. F. J. Walter purchased Saturday afternoon, through M. Leidersdorf's agency, the Joseph Realing lot at the corner of Palmetto avenue and Cedar street and adjoining on the south Dr. Walter's residence property.

Rev. Holmes S. Rightmire, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, went to Jacksonville today to preside over a series of revival services which will be held in Grace Baptist church of Jacksonville. Mr. Rightmire will be in the state metropolis for about two weeks.

Mrs. Charles S. Ullman and children and Mrs. Ullman's mother, Mrs. L. Klein, and Mrs. Joseph Weissenbach and children, whose expected arrival from Chicago was noted in Friday's issue of the Daily News, came in Saturday. Mrs. Ullman and children and Mrs. Klein joined Mr. Ullman at the Silvernall residence on Magnolia avenue which he had rented for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Haskinson and Mrs. Haskinson's mother, Mrs. George Huckins, of LaPorte, Ind., are among the recent arrivals in Daytona and are located in the Staples apartments on First street. The party are friends of W. A. Steigely and family, of LaPorte, who are located in the McCrory apartments on South Beach street, and are making their first visit to this city. Mr. Haskinson is a newspaper man and is South for rest and recuperation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. "Jimmy" Smith and Hewitt Edmondson motored to Jacksonville Saturday in Mr. Conrad's car. The party returned Sunday evening. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Edmondson driving back two cars for the Daytona Auto Supply company and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad being accompanied by a cousin of Mrs. Conrad, Mrs. Helen Mugan McKay, and little daughter, Rosemary, of Detroit, Mich., whom they met in Jacksonville and who will visit both Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Conrad and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Conrad at their homes on Orange avenue.

Judge Bert Fish and Sheriff E. L. Smith were Daytona visitors today.

W. C. Kelley, managing editor of the Hotel Morning News, left Sunday on a few days' business trip to his home in Fort Gaines, Ga.

Mrs. C. M. Vandewater left today for a few days' visit with her son, A. J. Vandewater, and family, at Malabar.

Frank Uhlén is at home for a visit of two months or more after an absence of nearly a year during which time he has been engaged as assistant engineer on board a large freight steamer plying between Savannah and Augusta, Ga.

Tom B. Bowman, of Huntington, W. Va., who has been a guest at the New Gables hotel in several past seasons, is again registered at that popular hostelry.

Mrs. J. E. Kelley and two children, of Fitchburg, Mass., are among the recent arrivals in Daytona and are occupying apartments in C. C. Hudson's house on South Ridgewood avenue.

Eugene Jones, telegraph editor of the Daily News, left Sunday in company with his mother, Mrs. Lewis A. Stout, on a motor trip to Jacksonville to meet and bring to Daytona Edward S. Betts, a prominent New York hotel architect, and his mother who will be guests at the Prospect hotel for the season.

COMPARES DAYTONA TO LAND OF EGYPT

MRS. C. M. DOW SENDS MOTTO
FOR BURGOWNE BAND CASINO AND PAYS COMPLIMENT TO COMMODORE AND DAYTONA.

Mrs. C. M. Dow, of Jamestown, N. Y., who owns a handsome winter home in this city, but is not South this season, writes as follows when contributing a motto for the Burgoyne band casino:

"When the Daytona Gazette-News of January 14 arrived, I found I was very much interested in your offer for the best motto for the Burgoyne band casino. Not on account of the $100 prize but because of the real interest I have in Daytona.

"It is not given to many to blaze the trail that strong, courageous souls have blazed like Commodore Burgoyne, but we can all have a real interest in Daytona and as I glance out on snow-bound Chautauqua on the coldest day of the season,

I think of my home in Dixie land. Where the gardens smile,

And spring's there most all the while. Where each heart is warm,

No frost or ice to do you harm. My advice is, just stay,

You who are in Dixie.

"I enclose my motto for the Burgoyne casino. I have been in Egypt a great deal and Daytona reminds me of that country so this motto, if the palmettos and palms were painted around it, would be a beautiful setting. If this pleases the committee, the prize of $100 I would want to present to the fund. Otherwise it is a pleasure to take part in this.

"Have sun setting over the Halifax with the dark, tall palmettos and palms. If I had time I would make a sketch with proper setting for this motto, which would have a prayer for everyone who enters and bring to mind the beautiful legend of the palms of Allah."

GAZETTE-NEWS BRINGS STREAK OF SUNSHINE

PUBLISHER OF PORT JEFFERSON

ECHO, LONG ISLAND, N. Y., ENJOYS DAYTONA PAPER—WILL BE HERE IN FEBRUARY.

A. J. Tefft, publisher of the Port Jefferson Echo, who is acquainted with Daytona and has numerous friends here, writes the editors of this paper as follows:

"The arrival of the Gazette-News each Monday brings a streak of sunshine, even in a Long Island fog, that glows until the arrival of the next issue. I already anticipate the pleasure of visiting Daytona in February.

"You will note by looking at the Echo that the transportation companies, viz., Clyde line, Old Dominion, Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line are advertising Florida some.

There are more people in Port Jefferson and vicinity who favor Daytona than any other section of Florida. There's a reason. Long Island in summer and Daytona in winter is becoming popular here. The Echo is the only paper on Long Island carrying all four of the advertisements previously referred to."

The last issue of the Echo contains

an article concerning Daytona, taken from the Brooklyn Eagle, of which the following is an extract:

"Daytona, one of the prettiest resorts on the Florida East Coast, is enjoying balmy summer weather such as the northern resorts have in June and July. Brilliant red poinsettias are blooming in every yard, forming a striking contrast to the green tropical foliage. Every one is in summer attire. The landscape is so full of color that fashionable folk are wearing all white costumes, the only touch of color being given by the gay smock jackets of silk that are taking the place of the silk sweaters, which have had such a long vogue.

"There are many fine catches of bass and trout in the adjacent waters. To F. C. Kallenbach, of Brooklyn, who is spending the season at the Despland, has been awarded the honor of catching the largest sargeant fish found in these waters."

WILBUR-BY-THE-SEA

The first meeting of the Wilbur-by-the-Sea Improvement association was held at the clubhouse on Monday evening. Matters pertaining to the development of Wilbur were discussed and a committee appointed to report on the cost of cement walks from Cardinal avenue to Riverside drive. The matter of erecting a hotel overlooking the river and ocean was brought up and Mr. Wilbur offered a very attractive proposition to the association which will be more thoroughly gone into at the next meeting.

On Tuesday afternoon a bridge party was given in honor of Mrs. J. W. Wilbur's birthday. The party was held in the summer house and the highest score went to Mrs. Wilbur. After the bridge a dainty collation was served, including a large birthday cake. Mrs. Augusta King read the selection written in honor of Mrs. Wilbur's last birthday by Mrs. Rubie Gould Cross.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Peter Parker entertained a number of ladies at her home on Ocean avenue with a sewing bee. Refreshments were served later in the afternoon.

On next Thursday Mrs. A. Z. Campbell will entertain the ladies of the colony at her home on Riverside drive.

R. J. MALBY ACQUIRES CONRAD INTEREST IN BOND LUMBER COMPANY

A deal has just been closed whereby R. J. Malby has acquired the interest of the late Senator J. B. Conrad in the Daytona yard of the Bond Lumber company, which for several years has been conducted as a co-partnership between Mr. Malby and the late Senator Conrad.

Mr. Malby has been the manager of the local yard ever since its establishment, and he has built it to one of the largest and most substantial business enterprises in Volusia county.

If you read it in the Daily News it is pretty apt to be just that way.

ARCADE PROGRAM, MONDAY, JAN. 23

At the Arcade theatre Monday will be shown "There's Good in the Worst of Us," a stirring western episode, starring Anna Little and E. Forrest Taylor.

Tiring of the east and the conventionalities of the social circle in which she spent her time, Carol Danforth, handsome and extremely wealthy in her own right, starts for the west.
Arriving at Holden she proceeded to the Eagle house, the only hotel the surroundings boasted, and registered.
That same evening Carol wandered into the "Hole in the Wall," a notorious dive operated by the equally notorious "Black Pete," who, according to the best informed citizens of the town, boasted that the handle of his Colt bore more notches than any similar weapon "for miles around." "Black Pete," at sight of the beautiful young girl, decides to claim her for his own.
But Paul Ainsley, her fiance, who made the trip west with her, decides to interfere, and protests against her apparent friendship for the notorious dive-keeper. Later, Ainsley visits the resort operated by "Black Pete." He warns him to have nothing more to do with the girl. Informed by the dive keeper that he had promised to shoot and kill the first easterner he met, Ainsley, fearing for his life, flees
the place. While making a dangerous turn in the road, his mount stumbles, hurling him heavily to the ground.
Later, when several riders bring their horses to a stop and examine the body lying in the roadway, they announce him as dead, and bring the body back to the town with them. Some days later, "Black Pete," toggled out in the best store clothes he could procure, called on Carol at her hotel and told her how, years before, while attending college in the east, Ainsley, pretending to love his sister, won her confidence and then wronged her, and fled. Then Carol wakes to the realization that she loves this burly man of the plains.

Daily Thought.

They are such dear familiar feet
that go along the path with us—feet fast or slow but trying to keep pace;
if they mistake we must be mute, not turning to impute grave faults, for they and we have such a little way to go, can be together such a little while upon the way, we must be patient
while we may.—George Kilgus.

MORE "MOTTOES" FOR THE BURGOWNE CASINO

And they keep coming. Let 'em—the more the merrier; and the bigger the variety for the judges to select from.
Here are the casino-motto suggestions that ambled in yesterday a looking for the cool hundred bucks the News offers for the best one:

"He that refines the public taste
In music is truly a public benefactor."

"Preparedness" the call—
And Saracina serves us all!"
(The wag who sent that one added,
"Place that $100 to my credit quick.")

"Come, enter and listen
To the sweetest music known,
And give thanks to the donor—
Our true friend, C. G. Burgoyne."

By failing to give his name and address the party who submitted this one is barred from the contest, but his offering jingles in an O-be-joyful fashion nevertheless:

"Unfetter your soul,
Unshackle your grouch;
Dance tonight, and—
Let your sorrows go hang!"

The motto contest's fame spreadeth. Here is a suggestion from a Jamestown, N. Y., lady, who yearns for her "home in Dixie land":

"I pray the prayer the Easterners do:
"May the peace of Allah abide with you;
Wherever you stay, wherever you go,
May the beautiful palms of Allah grow."

BEAUTIFUL EDITION OF GAZETTE-NEWS BE ISSUED SHORTLY

CONFORMING TO ANNUAL CUSTOM A "BOOSTER" BOOKLET WILL BE ISSUED BY GAZETTE-NEWS COMPANY.

Conforming to its annual custom, the Gazette-News company will shortly issue an illustrated edition of the City News and the Gazette-News. The edition will be in booklet form, printed on highly enameled paper and will be devoted entirely to boosting the Daytona locality.

All the illustrations will be new and will show the many changes and improvements that have taken place during the past year or so. Much interesting information about the changes and attractions of the Half-Century territory will be included within the covers of the book and special features on different local subjects will be written by well-known local writers.

The annual illustrated edition of the Gazette-News has been the only booklet descriptive of Daytona that has ever been published and the wide circulation given to these editions has probably done more than any other medium to bring Daytona before the tourist public as an attractive resort.

It is planned to issue the 1916 edition about the middle of next month.

CRYSTAL WILL SHOW BIG WAR FILM NEXT WEDNESDAY, JAN. 26

MAMMOTH PHOTO-PLAY FEATURING THE ATLANTIC FLEET AND THE ACTUAL SINKING OF SHIP BY SHELL FIRE.

Sensations have been out-sensational and motion pictures have nearly gone the limit in their realism if criticisms of the big Lubin war film "The Nation's Peril," are a criterion. From every corner after the private showings of the picture there has come a volume of wonderful praise, not only for the magnitude of the production, the stupendity of the scenes, the evident utter disregard for expense, but for the treatise which has been accorded this timely subject of the hour: preparedness and the hyphenated American.

From the smallest tender to the largest battleship and from its most humble cadet to Secretary Josephus Daniels seemingly every man and ship of the United States Atlantic squadron has done its duty toward the making of this picture.

With the beginning of summer, the Lubin players, upon their arrival at Newport, began building a settlement of frame houses which in a short time were made tenable and in these houses, the group of which was christened "Lubin Villa," the players lived until with the one scene remaining, that of the destruction of a town by artillery fire, the guns were trained upon the little village and every standing wall razed.

Then the director sought realism in the scenes of the navy at its destructive work of bombardment. Accordingly a ship was bought and sent to sea, and with it as a target, the battleship, Utah, and the U. S. S. Patterson and U. S. S. Yankton played for the camera and their big guns soon sent the "movie," as they termed the craft, to the bottom.

Other features of "The Nation's Peril" are the appearance of Secretary Daniels, Admirals Winslow and Fletcher, Vice Admiral Mayo, Captain Sims of the torpedo flotilla, Captain Wiloughby of the navy aerial corps, the War College, the navy training station at Newport, thousands of sailors and marines of the Atlantic squadron, soldiers of Rhode Island and Massachusetts as the hostile army, the wireless station at work, mine explosions in the harbor, etc.

Manager Titus has secured "The Nation's Peril" for presentation to Daytona audiences at the Crystal theatre for one day, Wednesday next, January 26th.

New Source of Profit.

Ted—"Smere sold his sketches of city life for five thousand." Ned—"Well, he's the best artist I ever knew who made money painting the town."—Judge.

Russia's Vast Resources.

Russia lacks only ten longitudinal degrees of stretching half way round the earth, and possesses one-sixth of the landed area of the planet. Russia's Asiatic possessions are forty times as great as those of Japan, even since the new Asiatic balance that followed the Russo-Japanese war. The variety of Russia's resources make the empire second only to the United States as the greatest food producing country in the world. It leads all nations in mineral wealth and timber supply.

YOUNG BARONESS IMPRISONED FOR WRITING GERMAN

BERLIN, Jan. 24.—Baron von Osten, a wealthy land-owner of the district of Mitau, Courland, has asked the German Red Cross to find his 16-year-old daughter, who was imprisoned by the Russians nine months ago and may have been sent to Siberia.

When the drive of the Teutonic allies through Galicia, Poland and the Baltic provinces began, in May last year, the Russians started wholesale arrests of Jews and Russian citizens with German names. The victims were either imprisoned, driven into the interior of the empire or deported to Asia.

In May a Russian patrol appeared on the estate of Baron von Osten. The baron and his wife were absent, as they had gone to Dorpat, and the soldiers ransacked the house looking for evidence of treason. The lieutenant in command of the detachment found a diary which contained entries in German and the daughter of the owner, Baroness Alexandra von Osten, a schoolgirl, confessed having written the sentences.

The entries were entirely harmless and had no relation to the war, but the lieutenant, who did not understand German, arrested the girl and sent her to Riga. From there she was transported to Petrograd with other prisoners. She was never tried and in all probability has been sent to some penal colony in Siberia with other alleged spies and traitors.

When the parents of the girl learned of her arrest the grief-stricken father hurried to Petrograd, but his appeals to the military authorities and the minister of the interior were in vain. He was curtly informed that his daughter would be returned to him later if she could be found. Nobody seemed to know what had become of her.

Almost insane from grief, the baron returned to his estate, which shortly afterwards came into the possession of the German troops. Since that time he repeatedly has tried to get to Petrograd to resume the search for his child, but he has not been able to obtain the necessary passports and has now appealed to the German Red Cross society. The society will try to locate his daughter with the aid of the diplomatic representatives of a neutral power.

Imagination.

The man with little imagination is a mere automaton, doing as he sees others do, because he cannot imagine any other way to do. He has no marked individuality of his own, for he has no dreams to live up to. Imagination means individuality; for as we live in our dream lives, so we will live more or less in reality.

Daily Thought.

"Impossible" is a word only to be found in the dictionary of fools.—Napoleon Bonaparte.

The Irony of Life.

One of the saddest phases of all human experience is the way a man, just about the time he succeeds in getting his brain developed to the point where he might accomplish something with it, finds that he has to devote all his attention to his teeth, stomach and legs to keep going at all.—Ohio State Journal.

Only Safe Kisses.

To make kissing perfectly safe, the secretary of the American Social Hygiene association recommends these precautions: Cut out a square of tissue paper, give it a bath in an antiseptic solution and place it over your mouth. This safeguard will prevent the kiss doing you harm provided you don't wear out the paper or break through it.
